Accommodation Pricing

To establish the fees you may be asked to pay, your income and assets will be considered. You may be asked to pay one or more of the following fees:

- ❖ A Basic Daily Fee: This covers living costs such as meals, power and laundry. For some people this is the only fee they are required to pay.
- ❖ A Means – Tested Care Fee: This is an additional contribution towards the cost of care that some people may be required to pay. The Department of Human Services will work out if you are required to pay this fee based on an assessment of your income and assets and will advise you of the amount.
- ❖ An Accommodation Payment: This is for your accommodation in the facility. Some people will have their accommodation costs met in full or part by the Australian Government, while others will need to pay the accommodation price agreed with the aged care facility. The Department of Human Services will advise you which applies to you based on an assessment of your income and assets.

The maximum accommodation payment at McLean Care® Mackellar is $440,000.

The interest rate used is the maximum permissible interest rate (MPIR) current at date of entry. The interest rate is 8.15% per annum.

The maximum accommodation payment can be paid as:

- ❖ A Refundable Accommodation Deposit (RAD) of $440,000.
- ❖ A Daily Accommodation Payment (DAP) of $98.25.
- ❖ A combination of a RAD and a DAP, for example;
- ❖ A 50% RAD (deposit) of $220,000 plus a 50% DAP of $49.12
- ❖ A RAD with a draw down, for example;
